Whitehall, August 14. 1693.

Two Mails coming in this Morning from Holland, but too late for this Day's Gazette, 'tis thought proper, as an Addition to it, to Publiſh the following News apart.

Publiſhed by Authority.

From the Duke of Savoy's Camp before Pignerol, Aug. 3.

WE continue our Attack of the Fort of St. Brigide, and have advanced our Trenches very conſiderably; In which Service we have loſt ſeveral Men, and the Count de Berne Lieutenant-General was killed yeſterday. We have taken a Redoubt, and ſome other Poſts which the Enemy were poſſeſſed of at ſome diſtance from the ſaid Fort. Yeſterday we finiſhed a Battery of 4 Pieces of Cannon; This Evening we have begun another; And ſhall now quickly be ready to make uſe of our Mortars. Monſieur Catinat continues about Suſa, drawing what Force he can together.

Vienna, Aug. 8. Our News from Hungary is as good as can be expected; For Count Dunnewalds (Son to the late General of that Name) is come hither from the Duke de Croy with an account, that the Army had ſafely paſſed the River Save on the 29th and 30th of the laſt Month with the loſs only of five Men, and was advanced near to Belgrade in order to form the Siege of that place, in which the Turks are ſaid to have only a Gariſon of 4 or 5000 Men, and no Army together to relieve it; ſo that the Imperialiſts hope to be in a ſhort time Maſters of this important Fortreſs, and thereby to facilitate the Peace, for which the Appearances were never ſo favourable as they are now.

From the Confederate Army near Hailbron, Aug. 14. We continue ſtill in this Camp to obſerve the Motions of the Dauphin, part of whoſe Army repaſſed the Neckar the 8th inſtant, and the reſt on the 10th; And their whole Army lies at preſent between Bengen and Battigheim. The Boors about Stutgart having got together to the number of 1500 men, fell upon 200 French who were poſted in that place, and having cut moſt of them in pieces, recovered the Town, and have taken upon them the Defence of it. 'Tis believed, that the Dauphin will in few days march back towards the Rhine.

Hamburg, Aug. 18. The King of Denmark is now in his Camp at Oldeſloe with 12000 Men, including a Detachement of 1500 Horſe which he has ſent into the Country of Saxe-Lawenburg. Ratisburg is well provided for its Defence. In the mean time, the Negotiation is continued for Adjuſting this Matter; And the Troops of Sueden and Brandenburg are ſaid to be on their march to preſerve the Peace of the Lower-Saxony.

Paris, Aug. 17. The Duke of Orleans returned hither on the 13th inſtant; And great part of the Forces which were poſted on the Coaſts under his Orders, are commanded to Flanders. The French King had on the 8th inſtant a Fit of an Ague, for which he took the Jeſuits Powder;

*EBLS. Anno 1693

HARVARD COLLEGE LIBRARY
MAY 23 1913
SUBSCRIPTION FOR ENGLISH HISTORICAL TRACTS

der; and 'tis said, that he has had no more Fits since.

From the King's Camp at Lambecque, Aug. 20. N.S. On Saturday last His Majesty took a Review of the whole Army at Wemell, and was very well satisfied with the good Condition he found it in. On the 17th we marched hither, our Right reaches to Hall, and our Left near to Tubise. Lieutenant-General Scravenmore is returned from Namur, where he was a Prisoner, and gives an account, that after the Battel there was brought into that Garison 1200 French Officers wounded, of which 400 are since dead; and that passing by the French Army as they were on their march, he saw many Battalions of Foot which had not 150 Men in each. The Duke of Ormond is expected at Brussels from Namur on Saturday next. On Tuesday last the whole French Army encamped at Nivelle, where they still continue, the Head-Quarters being at that place. By Letters from Madrid of the 6th instant we have advice, that the French Fleet, after having fired some Bombs into Malaga, was gone up the Streights.

Hague, Aug. 21. The States of Holland met again on the 15th instant; And the Deputies of Amsterdam have since proposed in the Assembly the Raising of 30000 Land Forces more to be added to their Army, and 40 Capital Men of War to be added to their Fleet. The French Fleet, under the command of Monsieur Tourville, is gone into the Streights. The French in Flanders have not attempted any thing since the late Battel, which sufficiently confirms the Account we have from all Hands of the Great Loss they suffered in it. His Majesties Army consists at present of above 50000 Men.

Printed by Edw. Jones in the Savoy. 1693.